THINGS
WE'RE WORKING
ON NOW

Website Enhancements

If you use the Truth For Life mobile app, you've noticed numerous enhancements, both visually and functionally. Our team is currently working to make similar updates to the website so that you'll have the same experience both on the app and at truthforlife.org. Our hope is to begin rolling out website upgrades before the end of the year.

Electronic Message of the Month

We've received your ongoing requests for an electronic version of the Message of the Month. We realize many homes and new cars no longer have CD players. Our desire is to offer you the option to receive your Message of the Month electronically. We aim to complete this effort before the end of the year.

Transcripts

When you're online at truthforlife.org, you'll find a transcript of Alistair's message by clicking Read Transcript under the player image for the daily program. Our team of editors continues to work on transcript creation for all of Alistair's teaching, and we aim to add a Read Transcript feature to the mobile app.

Introducing New People to Truth For Life

Like you, we have a passion to see unbelieving people become committed followers of Jesus Christ. Along these lines, your support helps bring Alistair's teaching to new audiences. Because your generous partnership makes it possible for our books and USBs to be sold at cost, with no markup, we introduce people not connected with the ministry to these low-cost resources. The response is often substantial, and we follow up with a welcome series of introductory information. In 2019, this evangelistic effort introduced 80,000 people to Truth For Life. Thank you for making this possible!

Radio Network

We continually look for opportunities to expand our radio network. With broad coverage across the US, there are still opportunities to improve broadcast times, widen reach across a listening area, and air the program on newly launched stations.

Truth For Life is currently broadcast through 1,883 radio stations and airs 76,395 times each month. If you have a friend in another city and would like to let them know what time and on what station they can hear Truth For Life in their hometown, simply enter their address or city in our Station Finder at truthforlife.org/finder.

Book

Eight topical chapters drawn from Paul's prayers in the book of Ephesians explore the attributes of prayer and also the things for which we should pray.

And by way of reminder, the Sunday morning livestream can be viewed at 9:45 a.m. eastern at truthforlife.org/live, through our YouTube channel or Facebook page and on streaming TV.
